The Sioux Indian Negotiations.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Instructions have been ... prepared at the Interior Department for the Sioux ... commissioners, H. D. Hinman, A. Corning and ... W. H. Ashley, with Fred Collins, secretary, are to ... visit the agencies of the Sioux interested in negotiating,—beginning at Red Cloud, for the purpose of laying before the Indians the wishes of the government respecting the desired cession of the Black Hills country and their rights in the Big Horn mountains, and also to invite them to a grand council. The commissioners are enjoined as to the necessity of great care in the interpretation of their interview, so as to avoid both mistake and any suspicion on the part of the Indians that they are not fairly reported. The commissioners are also reminded that they are appointed to represent the Indians and their interests, not less than those of the government, and they are instructed to ascertain the spirit of the kindly intentions of the President and government toward them, and that the proposed negotiations originate solely in a desire for continued peace. The Indians are plainly to understand any negotiations effected by the commissioners are to be referred to the President, and by him to congress before it shall be binding.

A New National Bank.

The Duquesne National Bank of Pittsburg, with a capital of $250,000, has been authorized to commence business.

The Mexican Border Troubles.

CHICAGO, June 19.—A Washington special says a high official, who has returned from a visit to the Texas border, reports a very deplorable condition of things; says the outside public has no idea of the real state of affairs. This side of the Rio Grande a widestretch of country is inhabited by Mexicans. They preponderate to a great extent over the Americans, and thereby have control of the civil officers. For this reason it is impossible to secure the conviction of Mexican thieves, who cross the border to plunder Americans. Upon the part of government officials there is every apprehension of serious difficulty with Mexico. Her government is powerless to prevent these outrages. Cortina rules in defiance of the Mexican government and is closely leagued with the Mexicans on this side in their schemes of murder. The promised arrest of Cortina is not believed to have been made in good faith. Nearly all inhabitants upon the border depend on thieving for support. The Texans are now fully aroused and a war of extermination is not improbable.

A Good Move.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—A naval force with steam launches will be ordered to the mouth of Indian Bayous, to look after our interests and co-operate with the army in the suppression of Mexican raids.

Not Frauds but Irregularities.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—An examination of a portion of the accounts of naval paymaster J. S. Stevenson, in which several irregularities have recently been discovered, was made to-day by accounting officers of the treasury. Although no fraud as yet is discovered there are many items which require explanation. The accounts for the first quarter of the present fiscal year show about $20,000 expended by him for the naval depot at Saguache gulf and latter part of December when he took charge of that station, to the end of March. In several of his accounts before the fourth auditor's office, he claims credit for $16,000 alleged to have been paid to officers on account of salary, but no receipts of the officers accompany them.

Survey of the Coast of Lower California.

Dispatches are received at the navy department from Commander Dewey of the U. S. steamer Narragansett, of the work of surveying the gulf and coast of Lower California has been completed, and the vessel is now en route for San Francisco, though she may be detained at La Paz in consequence of the revolutionary movement. Commander Dewey reports that the work has been very satisfactory.

The steamship Circhidian of Quebec, arrived in the Clyde. She was in collision with an iceberg and lost her bow sprit and figurehead.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

A Heavy Failure.

ST. JOHNS, June 19.—The liabilities of E. D. Jewett & Co. are nearly $6,000,000. One bank holds their paper to the extent of $250,000; another $220,000; a third $200,000; and a fourth $80,000. Their failure is ascribed to losses of lumber, general depression of trade, and engagements connected with Western Extension railway bonds. The effect on the general trade of St. Johns is depressing, but the banks will sustain their losses without curtailing. The failure is the heaviest ever known in this part of the country.

CHINA.

SHANGHAI, June 19.—Intelligence is received from Ching Kiang that some native soldiers at that place insulted the United States consul and his wife. Two of them were arrested and taken to the British consulate, when soldiers endeavored to rescue them; and the Europeans hastily mustered and prepared to defend the consulate, but the Chinese authorities succeeded in quieting the mob. The British and American consuls of this city have left for Ching Kiang. The United States man-of-war Palos and British war steamer Thalia will follow.

New Quartz Discoveries in Northern California.

YREKA, Cal., June 19.—Considerable excitement has prevailed here for a few days over the reported discovery of a long lost Cabin ledge. Jesse Bartel and one Hicklin, civil officers, from the milk ranch of Bartel Bros., at the head of McCloud river, bringing specimens of quartz said to be silver bearing rock. Some days ago the Bartel brothers observed a party camped near their ranch and from their action supposed them to be prospectors. When the campers left, the Bartels mounted horses and followed, overtaking them at night. One of the prospectors informed them they had located claims near by and that they would put up an assay made. The prospectors also told the Bartels they formerly resided in Virginia, and say this ledge shows better prospects than Comstock when first discovered. It is said assays made of the rock average one hundred and fifty dollars to the ton, the ledge improving in looks as it is further developed. The mines are near the boundary line between Siskiyou and Shasta counties, some seventy miles from this place. Quite a number of citizens have started for the new diggings.

Arrest of a Desperado.

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—The sheriff's party who returned with Jesus Celis, alias San Moreno, a noted horse thief, and stolen horses, were met by a party from Tulare county claiming the Mexican and some of the booty. Inquiries show Moreno to be a first-class desperado. It appears that several years ago he killed a man and woman in Sonora. It is believed he killed a couple of persons near Visalia. Subsequently he is also said to have belonged to Vasquez's band.

A Murderer gets a New Trial.

SALT LAKE, June 19.—Philip Shafer, convicted of the murder of Henry Van Valkenburg, and under sentence to be hanged on the 25th of June, has been granted a new trial by the supreme court, for the reason that two of the jurors, when drawn, were not naturalized citizens.

A Polygamist gets off on a Technicality.

George Reynolds was found guilty of bigamy or polygamy last term of the district court, under the United States laws of 1862, punishing bigamy in the territories. This being the first conviction in this Territory under the law, Reynolds was not sentenced, but an appeal was taken to the supreme court with the intention of taking the case to the U. S. supreme court. The supreme court of the Territory decided to-day that the previous conviction was null and void, from the fact that the grand jury was composed of twenty-three instead of fifteen, grand jurors, as required by the territorial statutes.

ARIZONA.

Brigham Young Seeks a New Field.

TUCSON, June 19.—The Citizen is informed Brigham Young is anxious to establish a colony in Sonora, his great desire being to get away from the influence of the public school system of the United States, thinking that by making common cause with the Catholic priests in Mexico, they can crush the public school system in that Republic, which the people are trying to establish.

Killed while Resisting an Officer.

A Mexican named Correllus, while resisting an officer here this week, was shot and killed by the officer.

Weather delightful.

Mining News.

YUMA, June 18.—Encouraging news is received from the different mines in this vicinity, which are being rapidly developed. The new smelting works are progressing rapidly.

From Mr. Hughes, clerk of Josephine county, the Plaindealer learns that parties are very busy in different localities, opening up quartz ledges, both gold and silver. Josephine county is a rich mineral district and will, when opened up, make times lively in that locality. Mr. H. came by the way of Jackson county and says there is considerable excitement over Doty's release, and there will be an effort made to bring him to trial again for the same offense, but under different head. Bardeen will be unable to come to trial this term, and will be apt to take a change of venue before the next term, to the bar of God. His physicians do not think he can survive long.

OREGON.

The Benton county jail is empty.

They play a new game at North Yamhill, which they call ditch digging.

All arrangements have been made for a grand time on July 5th, at Junction. The ball in the evening is to be the great affair of the occasion, and the best of music has been engaged.

It is said that the Columbia River Improvement Company have commenced suit for a right of way through the lands on the Oregon side of the Cascades, for the purpose of building the proposed canal and locks.

A shooting affray occurred at Roseburg last week, according to the Ekpindealer, between Joseph Ackley and Mr. Gillard, but nobody was seriously hurt. Ackley was arrested, but discharged on preliminary examination.

Five hundred pounds of strawberries per day has been the receipts at the Albany railroad depot since the season commenced. They were shipped from Marion station to Albany, where they found ready sale at 50 cents per gallon.

The two young men Parrott and Hicklin have been indicted for burning buildings at Salem, and some other indictments have been found which the Record thinks will be of much interest to the Salem public when the arrests are made.

The funds received from various sources fully sufficed to pay all the bills and expenses incurred in connection with the Pioneer Reunion and we learn that there is a small residue of cash on hand. The ball brought in over $300.

Considerable damage was done to Mr. Meslie's farm on Mill Creek, Wasco county, on Wednesday evening of last week, caused by the flooding of the creek. The water is said to be higher than it has been at any time this spring.

At Albany last Friday, an old lady, Mrs. McBride, dislocated her jaw while gaping. A physician was sent for, but before he reached her, the lady, who was suffering considerable pain, laid down, when her jaws resumed their normal condition.

The Plaindealer says: "Messrs. Barker and Burnett have struck cinnabar upon their claim near Roseburg, and are now making arrangements to prosecute the work vigorously. Mr. R. H. Rice has sold out his interest to Baker & Burnett for $5,00."

The following gentlemen were elected trustees of Christian College, at the annual meeting of the board, the 15th of June, 1875: E. Bedwell, F. S. Powell, D. Stump, J. D. Fenton, W. Waterhouse, D. Humphrey, Wm. Ruble and I. F. M. Butler.

Mr. Joseph Beezley informs the Mountaineer that his fishery at Tidbalks is now in full blast, and the fish are running in "copious effusions." One Indian caught 500 salmon in two days with a dip net; the fish weighing all the way from 20 to 35 pounds each.

Mr. T. M. Ward, who lives out in the Lone Rock country, in Wasco county, says that the weather was so cold as to freeze the pine timber in many localities. Trees over a hundred years old were killed. This would seem to prove that last winter was the coldest that this country has experienced for many years.

A letter from Applegate, Southern Oregon, says: "The latest discovery is three miles below the Yank ledge, being situated on both sides of Rogue river. It is supposed to be immensely rich; there being plenty of gold visible to the naked eye and is said to yield $500 per ton. There has, up to the present writing, been but two tons of rock taken from the ledge and that by Mr Scott, formerly of Multnomah county."

The Grangers of Lane county have succeeded in raising subscriptions to aid in the completion of the State University building, to the amount of $5,000, and that they will not relax their efforts until they have raised at least $6,000. This amount is in addition to what Grangers have given heretofore as individuals. This is one of the most favorable indications of the usefulness of the order.

A son of Mr. William Bagley, residing on the Mollala, whose name is John, is quite a hunter. When twelve years of age he attacked a panther in the woods, and with the aid of a couple of dogs drove it into a tree, where he dispatched it with a small rifle. Since that time he has been the hero in nine different combats in which three dogs were killed, and himself made one or two narrow escapes; and besides, he has slaughtered over a hundred deer and other wild animals.

The Eugene Journal hears that a party who have lately been prospecting in the Blue river country have struck it in paying quantities on Simmons creek, a tributary of Blue. A portion of the party were down the other day for the purpose of laying in a supply of provisions and getting lumber to put up sluices, preparatory to going into active mining operations, and think they can take out from three to five dollars a day to the man, when fully arranged for work.

Long Tom, says the Guard, is in advance of the world in general. It was there that a postmaster, by virtue of his official capacity, swore in his deputy, and it was there that a Sunday school was recently organized and a man who is attached to no religious denomination was called upon to preside, provided he would begin service with prayer. He declined, and a leader was chosen, a meeting was held, and disregarding the authority of the superintendent, in due time a member moved to adjourn, was seconded and put to a vote, and the Sunday school adjourned.

Damascus Grange, Clackamas county, has incorporated. Capital stock only $200, and yet the incorporation proposes the acquiring by gift, grant, donation, purchase or otherwise of real estate and personal property, and the holding, using, selling and disposing of and conveying the same, the chartering of ships, the shipment of wheat and other grain, and produce and goods, wares and merchandise generally, and the carrying on of a general merchandising business, the borrowing and loaning of money on mortgage and personal security, and the carrying on of a general banking business; and the purchase, holding, and disposing of stock in other corporations, whether home or foreign.

Some prospecting friends inform the Bedrock Democrat that there is a vast extent of country in Baker and Grant counties where a pick has never yet been stuck, and a great portion that has been prospected has only been skimmed over, and no thorough search has ever been made for ledges that have as yet made their appearance distinct and plain on the surface of the ground, and not more than one out of twenty, thus discovered, has been went down upon deep enough to enable a good judge to tell whether there was anything there or not that would pay to work. As a general thing the men who discover these ledges have not the means to prospect them, and are letting them lay, hoping something may turn up whereby they may be able to realize something for their discovery.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The New Westminster municipality intend to enforce the observance of the Sabbath.

The new schooner Micawber, Capt. Madden, arrived up at Victoria. She arrived from Stikine river, and belongs to Woodcock & Co.

The Colonist says: A party of surveyors will arrive by the first steamer in July to make a location survey from Tete Jaune Cache west.

Bishop Cummings has officially notified the vestry of Emanuel church that the consecration of Dean Cridge as Bishop of British Columbia, will take place at Ottawa during the present summer.

It is rumored that the Canadian government contemplate the construction of a large wharf at the Indian reserve, not far from the Admiral's residence at Esquimalt harbor, together with warehouses, for the reception of the steel rails and other Dominion material required in the construction of the Esquimalt-Nanaimo railway.

It is said that when the bark Empress Eugenie struck on Chain Rocks on Saturday night, the captain of the bark became nearly beside himself at the prospect of losing his fine vessel. He drove the pilot off the ship and forced him to seek refuge on board the tug. It was no doubt a very trying moment for the poor captain, and the pilot was fortunate in getting off as he did with a whole skin.

Mr. Lenihan, Indian commissioner, has arrived at Nanaimo from Victoria, and will furnish to the natives in and around the city lime, soap, &c., the use of which in the immediate purification of their dwellings will be strictly enforced. Wholesale vaccination will also be insisted on. As soon as matters are properly in trim, Mr. Lenihan will proceed to the Inlet to enforce similar sanitary measures among the Indians there. This prompt and energetic action is worthy of all praise, and will probably be the means of saving not a few lives.

WHAT DO HOLLADAY, CHAPMAN AND SIMPSON WANT?

PORTLAND, June 19, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I understand that Dr. Chapman has recently received an important letter from Ben. Holladay, requesting the doctor to soon meet Holladay at Clatsop. It is generally supposed by those who watch how the cat jumps, that Ben and the doctor have some political programme to arrange. What designs Ben Holladay has upon the city treasury I know not, but one thing I am very clear about: As a taxpayer, as well as a Republican, I am not willing to place the interests of this city in the hands of Ben Holladay or any of his tools. When the Republican party is so hard up that they cannot find any more trusty leaders than Ben Holladay, Dr. Chapman and Ben Simpson, I think it is about time to reflect what possible interest such men as Ben Simpson can have in the city government—an old party hack, just from Ben Holladay's bosom, ready to do all his dirty work. What interest can this man have in our city? Why is he trying to manipulate its affairs? Has he or Ben Holladay some huge job on hand? Had he not better attend to the legitimate duties of surveyor general, and try to stop some of the corruption heretofore existing in that office. We want none of it in our city affairs. As for myself, I find my taxes greatly reduced during the past two years, and I wish here to testify my appreciation to Mayor Failing and those who have acted with him in this good work of retrenchment, and I pledge him and them my vote as an endorsement of their course during the past two years. A. REPUBLICAN.

WHAT DEMOCRATS SHOULD THINK OF DR. CHAPMAN.

PORTLAND, June 19, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I have observed that a number of the custom-house and Holladay ring are urging Democrats to vote for Dr. J. A. Chapman for mayor instead of the present worthy incumbent. Such a request is an insult to the intelligence and integrity of every Democratic voter, not only in our city, but of the State. Let them remember that Dr. Chapman, after being honored by an election to the office of chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, the highest position in the Democratic organization, on the eve of a most important election, resigned the position, joined hands with Holladay and Ripple in their corrupt attempt to defeat the Democratic candidates, and thus obtain control of the State, and by so doing accomplish their personal ends. What would be thought of a general at the head of an army, laying down his arms in the face of the enemy, and going over to them? All would denounce such conduct as base treachery. Democrats cannot but regard Dr. Chapman as a deserter from their ranks, and deserving their execration. Let these Democrats show that they contemn political treason and vote solidly against Dr. Chapman. A DEMOCRAT.

VANCOUVER NOTES.

Our correspondent writing under date of June 19th, says:

A mining company has just been organized here for the purpose of working the silver mines northeast of this city. The latest reports from the mines are very encouraging.

An excursion and basket picnic to Oregon City comes off next Thursday. The steamer Vancouver will leave Portland on her way up, at about 10 o'clock A. M. Fare from Portland to Oregon City and return, 50 cents. The proceeds are to be devoted to the building fund of St. Luke's church.

A serious shooting affray occurred this (Saturday) morning at about 11 o'clock, between a Mr. King and Joseph Burke. A quarrel had been going on for some time, when it reached the climax this morning by King shooting Burke,—firing two shots, one taking effect in the shoulder. It is thought the shot will prove fatal, but the real character of the wound has not yet been ascertained. Burke was taken to the Sisters' hospital, where he will receive due care. King delivered himself up to the tender mercies of the sheriff. The shooting was probably in self-defense. The affray occurred on the street and was witnessed by several persons.

The Intelligencer says that on Tuesday, June 8th, August Plummer, a native of Sweden, was accidentally killed at James Taylor's logging camp, at Eagle Harbor, in Kitsap county. In removing his shot gun out of a small boat, while the muzzle was carelessly turned toward him, the hammer caught on the thwart of boat, the gun was discharged, and the load of shot lodged in his breast, near the heart, killing him instantly.

THE TERRITORIES.

A society for the prevention of cruelty to animals has been organized at Olympia.

The Eliza Anderson is expected to soon go on the Sound route, relieving the North Pacific, while the latter undergoes repairs.

Every logging camp on the Sound is run

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 21, 1875.

ADDRESS OF THE CITIZENS' COMMITTEE.

CITIZENS OF PORTLAND: The committee selected by you to nominate candidates for the various offices to be filled by your election to-day, have accepted the trust, and to the best of their ability have selected men for the various positions, whose experience and integrity ought to command the support of the voters of Portland.

Our nominations have been made, as you requested, without reference to the political antecedents of the nominees. This request from so large a proportion of those interested in the good government of our city assures us that you have not been unmindful of the great good which has resulted from a non-partisan government during the two years just past. Under its administration all classes have been relieved of heavy burdens of taxation, and the revenues raised have been faithfully and honestly expended. The city has been governed economically with a view of serving the public interests, rather than of enriching the persons filling the various offices. But we desire to remind you that it will require the same earnest labor to retain an economical government, which was required in the first place to secure it. The public business will no more take care of itself than your own private affairs. And we therefore most earnestly insist that each and every voter shall to-day lay aside all other business and attend to the election of men who, during their terms of office, will serve you faithfully and honestly, will practice a rigid economy in every department, and—so far as good government will contribute to that end—will give prosperity to your city. We again urge every citizen to spend this one day in the performance of a duty which he owes to himself and to the public.

R. R. THOMPSON, Chairman.
B. G. WHITEHOUSE, Secretary.

DO YOUR DUTY TO-DAY.

Fellow-citizens of Portland, we feel justified in urging you to give this day to the work of securing a continuation of good government in the city. It is a question of taxation. Is it of no moment to you whether your taxes are high or low? The present administration has reduced the current expenses of the city government more than thirty thousand dollars a year, irrespective of the matter of street improvements. You can save more money by helping to elect the People's ticket to-day than you can possibly make by staying at your business house. Think of it, business man. Think of it, mechanic. Think of it, every one. Can you make as much by keeping at your ordinary business to-day, as the difference between your city taxes this year and what they were before? If you have $1,000 worth of property, your taxes this year are $6 less than they were before the People's movement carried the city; and if you have $6,000 worth, your city taxes are reduced $36. Is not that a good day's work? Do not be deceived by the professions of the party politicians. They have always promised economy, and they have always disregarded the promise when they obtained the offices which they sought. They will do the same now. The People's candidates promised substantial retrenchment, and they performed their promises. You owe them your endorsement of their faithful efforts for your welfare. You owe them your recognition of their services. You owe yourselves the continuation of the economical administration they have inaugurated. The man of small means and the rich man are alike interested in this matter. Give this day to the public, and by doing so save your money. Come out to the polls. Let no distaste for the scenes and circumstances of election day keep you away. These things, as generally presented, are distasteful. None of us like them. But they are a public duty that must be met. You must take a personal interest in securing good officers, or you will suffer the consequences in high taxes and a government of jobs. Will you do your duty to-day?

Vote for Capt. Wiley for councilman for the First Ward.

TO THE TAXPAYERS.

Do you desire low taxes and good government? Do you desire rigid scrutiny into city expenditures? If so sustain your worthy Mayor by re-electing him.

Low taxes for the city, and S. G. Skidmore for councilman for the Second Ward.

OPPOSED TO GOOD GOVERNMENT.

We understand a certain class of saloon-keepers are actively opposing Mayor Failing. Why? Because he is in favor of good government, and equal rights to all kinds of business. Let our good citizens, of every occupation, give one day to electing worthy officers and sustaining the Taxpayers' Ticket. Stay at the polls and lend the influence of your presence to the cause of good government.

Jug the fellow that votes illegally to-day, no matter what ticket he votes.

THE QUESTION.

Shorn of all partisan features, the question to be decided to-day by the voters of Portland is, whether they will have a cheap and efficient government with low taxes, or be eaten up with taxes to support a horde of party hacks whose only interest will be to dish money out of the city treasury with which to hire shoulder-hitters and buy votes at the State election. If they want good, economical government and low taxes, they will support the People's ticket. If they want to pay double their present taxes they can secure the opportunity by voting for Chapman.

The secret detective force is on the track of the bribers and the illegal voters.

WHAT DID CHAPMAN GIVE FOR THE SUFFERERS?

There was not a single case of suffering caused by the great fire of August, 1873, that was not fully relieved. All the wants of the sufferers were provided, and such as would accept them were furnished with tools according to their occupation, to begin anew. This was done mostly with means contributed by the men whom the carpet-bagger of the Bulletin is now denouncing as vampires on the community. Dr. J. A. Chapman is a rich man, lives in a palace, drives a magnificent team, but was not one of those who gave liberally to relieve the distresses of the sufferers.

The law prohibiting the selling or giving of liquor to-day is published in another column.

BEN HOLLADAY'S SENATORIAL SCHEME.

We are credibly informed that one of Mr. Holladay's editors was obliged to retire from the Bulletin because he told Holladay he had no chance to be elected United States Senator. Others who have been his friends have told him he had "no more show than a Chinaman" and that caused a manifest coldness toward them. But Ben Simpson tells him he can buy his way to the Senate, and he is working everything to that point. Simpson is to be his chief fugleman. The first work to be done is to secure by corruption the election of Chapman as Mayor, so the city government can be used for the purpose of carrying the county and State in Holladay's interest next June. That is, the milk in the city election cocoa-nut. The ring could not find a respectable Republican who was willing to be the instrument of the Bens. A Democratic deserter was just the thing they wanted. That explains why the so-called Republican city ticket is headed by a Democrat.

We are informed the ring are putting money into the election. There will be about 20 bribers and bribed in the lockup before night.

WHO POCKETED FEES AND HAD TO DISGORGE?

The ring organ has much to say about the chief of police having pocketed fees that did not belong to him. We should think the ring organ would be a little chary of that subject. A careful investigation of the matter by the city auditor, by direction of the common council, showed that the chief of police had accounted for every cent collected, by him, and, in fact, that the only mistake made by him in his accounts was something like forty dollars against himself; so he had paid into the city treasury $40 more than the city was entitled to under the decision of the supreme court; while Police Judge Denny, one of the chief fuglemen of the ring, and managing director of the ring organ in its crusade against the business men of this city, was found to have collected about $100 more than he had accounted for, which he was compelled to disgorge. That is an unpleasant fact which the ring organ's course makes it necessary for us to state whether we like to do so or not. We will add that we have in our possession another and larger list of discrepancies in Judge Denny's accounts which require explanation.

To-day you vote by ballot. If you don't want anybody to know how you vote, nobody has any right to know.

A SIGNIFICANT LETTER.

A member of the ring has been indiscreet enough to show a certain letter of Holladay's to the wrong person. He thought he was showing it to a person who sympathized with the scheme for taxing the people of Portland to carry the legislature next year for Holladay, but he will realize what a mistake he has made, when he sees that the matter is made public. The letter bears date May 29th, and, after speaking of Holladay's intention to be a candidate for the United States Senate, before the next legislature, goes on to urge the importance of carrying the city election by the ring, saying, if they can carry the city, they can so manage its government as to make it a "great lever in the State election." When Holladay talks of a lever in an election, his meaning is not to be mistaken. It is fair to presume the purpose of the three renegade Bens—Ben Holladay, Ben Simpson, and Ben Chapman—is to inaugurate a system of party jobbery in the city government whereby our people shall be taxed $10,000 or $20,000 to raise a corruption fund for the next election. If the people allow Chapman to be elected Mayor of this city to-day they will have little right to complain when they are taxed to support the absurd pretensions of Holladay.

Don't neglect the election to-day. The citizen of a free country ought to be willing to devote one day to every important election.

THE TESTIMONY OF THE SUFFERERS.

The plain presentation of the facts with relation to the conduct of Mayor Failing and the Relief Committee which we gave last Saturday, ought to have settled all controversy on the subject. We are glad that some who had been misinformed before, have, upon examination of all the facts become satisfied they were doing Mr. Failing and the Committee great injustice and have not hesitated to state so publicly. But some still persist in their unjust charges. In order that there may be no possible excuse for further persistence in this course, we present now the testimony of the sufferers themselves.

On the 7th of August, 1873, a meeting of the sufferers was held at the Court House, to consider the situation. It was largely attended, and before it had proceeded far it was apparent that it was mainly called to express disapprobation of the course that had been pursued by the Mayor and Relief Committee. Among those most active in the meeting, were Dr. J. G. Glenn, D. D. Bunnell, Lewis Love, F. M. Arnold, and others, all sufferers by the fire. At that meeting, after some discussion and no little intemperate denunciation of the Mayor and general Relief Committee, a committee was appointed to report a plan of action. On that committee were D. D. Bunnell, C. A. Dolph, I. Sinsheimer, Mr. Brendle, and some others. That committee began its work by investigating the proceedings of the Mayor and general Relief Committee, and when they had completed that investigation they had nothing left to do except to make a report which wholly confounded and silenced all the croakers. Their report—the report of this committee of the sufferers, appointed by a meeting hostile to the Mayor and Relief Committee—was in the form of a series of resolutions. The resolutions which were offered by Mr. Sinsheimer, were as follows:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this committee that everything it is possible to do for the relief of the destitute here is being done by the committee of relief now acting under appointment of the Mayor, that having investigated the doings of that committee, we find that all that can be comprehended under the term of suffering, viz.: provisions, temporary places of abode, necessary furniture, mechanic's tools, and in general all that is necessary to enable people to help themselves is already being provided for; that from the investigations thus far made by the committee, we are of the opinion that the local subscriptions will be nearly if not quite ample for the purposes above named.

Resolved, That we approve of the course pursued by the committee in holding the sums now subject to draft of the Mayor on persons in neighboring and Eastern cities, until further investigations of the committee shall determine whether the use of the sums be necessary.

That is what a committee appointed by the sufferers' hostile meeting found to be the facts, upon thorough investigation. These resolutions were presented, as the report of the committee, to the sufferers' meeting on the 11th of August, to which time it had adjourned, and were adopted by the meeting. Whoever continues assailing Mayor Failing for his course, after knowing all these facts, does so not from a sense of duty or motive of public good, but from the unworthy motives of a man willing to do another a wrong in order to gain a personal advantage.

City election to-day, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning and closing at 6 in the evening. Don't forget or neglect it. Whether you vote for this ticket or that, your duty as a citizen requires that you vote.

DR. CHAPMAN'S RECORD.

A letter in this paper from a prominent Democrat of the city, presents a salient point in the Democratic record of Dr. J. A. Chapman. Since Dr. Chapman is presented by the ring convention as a representative Republican, and the support of Republicans is asked for him on that ground, it is proper to give a brief sketch of his party record on that side. That will involve something more of his Democratic record.

The first that is known of him is, he was a peace Democrat in the dark days of 1861, when he resided in New York State. In the spring of 1862 a company of volunteers was to be raised to cross the plains, the ostensible if not the real object of which was to protect the emigrants. As this company was to be mustered out as soon as it reached this coast, it offered an excellent opportunity for getting farther away from the possibility of hostile battalions and the danger of conscription. The Doctor saw the point, and, presto change! he was a red hot Union man. The ruse succeeded, and he was soon "grafted into the army" of Uncle Sam, and resolutely marching to the tune of Yankee Doodle, with his face to the far off Pacific and his back to the foe. Arrived in Oregon and mustered out of service, he was again a Democrat; not a peace Democrat simply, but a very loud opposer of the government in its efforts to save the Union. Mr. Lincoln was his peculiar aversion, and he lost no opportunity to denounce him for a tyrant. He was so noisy that he came to be regarded as the representative of the extremest rebel sentiment in this region; and "Crow, Chapman, crow!" was the taunt with which the Republicans met the extreme Democrats, after any overwhelming defeat of the Democratic party. Thus matters went on and he was elected Mayor as a Democrat to fill a vacancy. It is well remembered that his ignorance of the requirements of the position made him a laughing stock in the community. At the next regular election he was placed in nomination by the Democracy, but his half-terms administration was more than the party could carry, and he was ignominiously defeated.

Next he got himself appointed as chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, which position he was holding a little less than two years ago, when it became necessary to elect a Congressman to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the lamented Wilson. It was understood that Col. Nesmith would be a candidate, and that his friends desired the Central Committee to be called together at an early day, but that Chapman under the direction of Holladay and Hipple, was refusing to call the committee, they thinking they could force out of Nesmith an agreement not to hipple Hipple in the campaign. Then it was common report in this city and elsewhere over the State, and has never to our knowledge been denied, that Chapman sent Nesmith a telegram which he received at Salem, saying he would call the committee together at once, if Nesmith would agree not to dwell on Hipple's "indiscretions" in the canvass. This offer Nesmith declined, sending the telegram back to Chapman by mail with a direction written on the back of it, telling him what use he might make of the paper on which it was written. The next morning Chapman published a card resigning his position as Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, and declaring his purpose to attach himself to "the party of progress." That is the date and those some of the circumstances of his conversion to the Republican party.

We said these were some of the circumstances of his conversion. They were not all. There is another circumstance that has significance. Not a very great while before his conversion Dr. Chapman had obtained the personal friendship and gratitude of Mr. Ben Holladay by performing certain medical services of a very important and peculiar character at his request, for which, in addition to a large fee, he was presented by the grateful Holladay with a gold watch and chain of the value of some hundreds of dollars. From that time till he became a member of "the party of progress," he was a constant visitor and intimate friend at Holladay's house, and was generally understood to be ready at any moment to transfer the Democracy over to Holladay whenever an opportunity should offer.

This is his Republican record. It dates back less than two years, and never has connected him in fact with the Republican party. He is not a Republican; he is merely a Holladay man.

The best possible guaranty for low taxes is in the re-election of men who have reduced the taxes nearly fifty per cent. in the last two years, and who, being themselves heavy tax-payers, have a strong personal interest in making every further reduction that is possible.

Charles Hodge, the People's candidate for the council from the third ward, besides being just the man for the place, is one of Portland's earliest and most enterprising citizens! Vote for him.

Ben Simpson was moved to Portland by Hipple and Holladay, and receives a fat salary from your taxes, for the purpose of "running" you on just such occasions as this. Will you allow him to do it?

The ring want you to vote for John Carson instead of M. S. Burrell for Police Commissioner. Is it not the height of impudence?

The Surveyor General's office was brought down here from Eugene on purpose to be used in corrupting the city election.

M. S. Burrell for Police Commissioner. Failing for Mayor, and low taxes for the people.

Chapman for Republicans to vote for! How is that for high?

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED

The Headquarters of both political parties have again by common consent been established at ISAAC BLUM'S Store, which he has elegantly refitted to meet the requirements of the occasion. This place has become the recognized resort of connoisseurs, who pride themselves on the fact that they smoke Blum's Cigars and pay for them.
This card is published for the information of strangers. It is therefore well for visitors from various parts of the State and abroad, as well as San Francisco dealers and such like, to bear this in mind and act accordingly.
Parties desiring Imported Havanas or Key West Cigars by the box will please call before the present invoice is disposed of.
An unusually fine lot of special Domestic Brands on hand.

FUNERAL OF FATHER KELLY —Yesterday the mortal remains of Father Kelly were consigned to their last resting place on earth Notwithstanding the inauspicious state of the weather the gathering of relatives and friends was the largest ever witnessed for a similar object in this city or vicinity Numbering amongst those present we noted many of the most prominent citizens of Portland and East Portland. The services were conducted by Father Roberts in Lee s chapel (a church erected principally by the liberality of Father Kelly) near East Portland, assisted by Rev Mr Hoberg One or two songs were sung—songs that Father Kelly while living, admired, one, the "Home of the Soul" is a beautiful composition After singing and prayer by Father Roberts, who has known deceased for over twenty years, read portions of the service, making a few remarks between his reading and eulogistic of Father Kelly Graphically Mr Hoberg, pastor of Lee s chapel, spoke of the sterling worth and character of deceased The remarks of both gentlemen were very appropriate, interesting and impressive At times hardly a dry eye was to be seen After the remarks all desiring took a last look at Father Kelly's late earthly tabernacle when the relatives and friends formed in line and proceeded to the family burial grounds about half a mile beyond Father Kelly s late house The procession numbered over one hundred vehicles besides many persons on foot At the grave the services were conducted by Rev Mr Hoberg assisted by Father Roberts after which the casket was lowered and left to those whose duty it is to cover it from mortal eyes

ARREST FOR LARCENY —Last Friday Mr T Tinkle, who is secretary for the Grange Market Association received from a gentleman $100 in gold coin Mr Imbrie after receiving and receipting for the money, placed it in the drawer of the safe He soon after left the market and came down street and was absent some time Supposing all to be right and having confidence in the honesty of those employed about the market, Mr Imbrie failed to observe the precaution to lock the safe door A young man named Louis Vincent, alias Waterbottom, was employed at the butcher stall of the marker but as he had been there for some time it was thought that he could be trusted When Mr Imbrie returned to the stall and opened the drawer he discovered to his astonishment, that the $100—five $20 pieces—was missing On looking around he found Vincent lying under the counter intoxicated His suspicions were aroused at once, and complaint was lodged against Vincent at police headquarters When arrested and brought to the jail only the sum of $9 50 was found on his person Saturday morning the case came up for examination but Vincent waived an examination of the case He was held to answer the charge in the sum of $500 and in default committed to the county jail In the afternoon of that day the grand jury took the case under advisement, and soon returned a true bill We learn that $89 of the missing money has been recovered from a saloon keeper with whom Vincent left it soon after committing the theft

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE —The Oregon Guardsman says "Bishop Morris visited St Paul s Church on Sunday, the 30th ultimo, visited three times, addressed the Sunday school and administered the rite of confirmation to one person The congregations were very large, the church being filled at each service, and at the morning service additional seats had to be brought in to accommodate the people St. Paul's school at Walla Walla has just closed for this season It has had 52 pupils and closes with most encouraging prospects for the next year. Mr Wells writes to the Bishop that the subscription for the new school building has met with encouraging prospects and that the work will soon be started The contract for the brick foundation of St Peter's Church, Albany, has been let, and the plans for the church itself are in the hands of builders, who will soon send in their proposals and get the work under way at an early day"

PASSENGERS—COMING—The steamer Ajax sailed on Saturday morning from San Francisco for Portland, bringing the following passengers Rev Bishop J T. Peck, Rev J Flynn, Mrs. H Flanders, B Greenbaum & wife, Capt. Batchelder & 3 children Fred Carleton, R. D Holman H W Rooker, J Nepman & wife, J Boyce, J W. Stephenson Col J Green & wife C. C. NEW TOWER —Messrs Hart & Brant contractors for elevating the new fire alarm bell to an altitude of seventy feet from the ground upon which work at the tower on Friday afternoon last present the tower is forty feet high and the ordinance which passed the common council at the last meeting requires that the bell shall be raised thirty feet higher The roof boarding has been taken off of the tower, and the bell will be lowered to the floor. The tower is to be rebuilt in such a manner as that the top where the bell will be hung must be as large as before It will be constructed of heavy timbers set upright from the ground, inclined regularly toward each other until they are the same distance apart at the top as the timbers of the other tower The new tower will be finished and bell rehung by the last of the present week

TO ORIENT —From the Astorian we learn that it has been decided to take the Orient up the Columbia river to some point where she can be beached at high water for repairs This will necessitate a detention of perhaps not less than three months to the vessel, but it is the best that can be done

TO SALEM —Sheriff Jeffery took John Snell up to Salem on Saturday afternoon, and ere this time John has been consigned to the tender mercies of William Watkinds Snelling was convicted of larceny last week, and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years by Judge Shattuck Saturday morning

TO SALEM —This morning Rev Mr Bentley will leave for the Capitol where he will remain several days During his stay in Salem he will deliver the annual address before the literary societies of Willamette University.

QUARTERLY EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS —All persons desiring certificates as teachers in the public schools of this county will present themselves at the Central building next Saturday June 26th, at 9 A M

OBITUARY.

Rev Clinton Kelly, one of the early pioneers to our State, passed from earth to his reward on Saturday morning June 19, 1875 He was born in Pulaski county Ky, June 15 1808 In January 1827 he was converted and commenced his life work as a minister in the M E Church and has since devoted his talents and energies for the benefit of his fellow man always denying himself the comforts and enjoyments of this life that he might the better assist others

In 1827 he was united in marriage to Mary Baston by whom he had five children three of whom are still living—good citizens of this county His first wife died in 1837 He was again married in 1838 to Jane Burns to whom was born one child She died soon after when he was joined in matrimony to Moriah Crane to whom was born nine children Hon Penumbra Kelly who was one of the representatives from this county in the last legislature being of the fruits of his last marriage

At the secession of the M E Church South from the mother church he took up his relations in that church but seeing though then far off the terrible strife that would result from slavery he longed to get away from its influences and hearing of this far off land took up his march in 1847 across the plains for Oregon where he arrived late in the year of 1848 and settled about two miles east of this city By great industry and frugality he had surrounded himself and family with an abundance of this world s goods Though so well situated in life he ceased not to teach men of Jesus and the higher life they might live by squaring their lives by his laws

His especial efforts have been devoted to the temperance cause He had seen much of the ravages of the drinking customs during his lifetime and worked to abate its dreadful power He spared neither time nor money in this work, and though earnestly he fought he made no enemies for all felt that love for his fellow man urged him to his work For forty eight years he has diligently served his God and after a long life of usefulness, full of many sufferings and privations he has gone to reign with Him

His last sickness was accompanied with most excruciating pain For nearly a score of years he had been afflicted with a severe type of dyspepsia, and of late all food taken into the stomach seemed to turn to gas It was found his heart was diseased the valves having become thickened from rheumatism, thus producing irregular action The two diseases combined caused a smothering sensation and for the last three months he has almost continually been in an upright posture The disease completely baffled the best efforts of his physicians His strong physical system refused to yield and the fight was long and terrible but amidst it all his mind was calm and serene and with pleasure he looked for the coming of his Master His life was an example of integrity and his memory will long remain fragrant in the hearts of scores and hundreds who have known and loved him

Most of the afternoon was occupied in hearing the reports of the churches, which number fifteen with a total membership of about 600 Five churches those at Albany Astoria Forest Grove Portland and Bellingham Bay reported revivals Eleven of the churches report 1,350 Sabbath school scholars Eight churches report 75 additions and seven churches have added none to their membership Twelve churches report $10 000 raised for all purposes Eight churches have no regular pastors A resolution was passed by the ladies recommending each church to organize a Woman s Board of Missions In the evening Rev H W Stratton preached with reference to the coming of Rev E P Hammond

SATURDAY MORNING

The Association listened to an address from Rev P C Hetzler agent of the Bible Society in which he stated that the agent had traveled in Oregon and Washington 7 761 miles during the year had found 467 families destitute, of which 332 were supplied and 232 other persons who had no Bibles Twelve hundred and eight dollars had been collected, and 140 addresses made Prof Condon read an essay on religion and science which created a warm discussion and Rev R R Thatcher a review of Le Conte s religion and science

AMUSEMENTS.

New Market Theater was densely crowded last Saturday evening on the occasion of the second appearance of the Lingards The performance opened with Dubcats Ground followed by Lingard in his truly wonderful sketches and concluding with Naval Engagements This evening La Tentation will be offered for the first time in Portland It is a marvelous and beautiful production from the French of Octave Feuillet The plot is not intricate, abounds in fine situations and is clothed in excellent language It is not the least attractive feature of La Tentation that it carries with it a moral which it would be well not to lose sight of In the character of Camille Desardes Alice Dunning Lingard has a fine opportunity for displaying those dramatic powers which have gained her so enviable a position in her profession Helene will present, Miss Dickie in a bewitching role As Achille we anticipate that the finished artist and gentleman Wm Horace Lingard will give a rare and delightful impersonation For the accommodation of Vancouverites who may desire to witness the play, the steamer Vancouver will arrive here this evening in time for the performance and return at the close

The celebrated Polar Soda Water can be found only at the 'German Pharmacy of Wm Pfunder, lately removed to New Market Theater block All the ladies of Portland take this refreshing drink at the above place since its opening Syrups better than ever Reputation of the 'Polar' fully sustained

Pork and beans are one of the dishes they set up at Fabre & Barnes'.

REV. E. P. HAMMOND IN PORTLAND.

1 800 PRESENT AT THE CHILDREN'S MEETING—2 000 OUT DURING THE EVENING

The meetings of Saturday morning and evening were very much of the same cast and character as the previous ones held during the week A good deal of interest was manifested and although the evening meeting was an long prompts one there was a large audience present Mr Hammond took for a text the parable of the marriage of the king s son and spoke for about 35 minutes There was during the day a red hot open air meeting at the corner of Stark and First streets that lasted for about 30 minutes Yesterday services were held in the forenoon at the several churches by the pastors—In the afternoon a grand rally was made at the rink in behalf of the children The audience commenced to gather as early as 2 o clock and upon the time in singing About the hour of 3 the Sunday schools began to arrive and at fifteen minutes past three—the hour at which Mr Hamm and arrived the large room was filled He commenced with reading the story of the Lord appearing into Samuel During the reading he gave to the sleepy and listless Christians some hard and unpalatable raps about their indifference and want of interest in these meetings Prayer and song followed when Dr Lindsley made a few remarks He said that he believed no parent could be justified in the sight of God in keeping their children away from these meetings He endorsed them most heartily and believed the blessing of God would follow the efforts being made He repeated the story of the conversion of a little German boy, and said that he needed no further evidence of the prophecy and necessity of the conversion of children

Rev Mr Price followed with the story of the wedding garment

Mr Hammond then took for his text Return unto me, for I have redeemed thee, proceeded to illustrate by stories the meaning of the word 'redeemed' Mr Hammond spoke to the children for about fifty minutes in a very pleasant and instructive way keeping their attention fixed to the subject At the conclusion of the sermon an inquiry meeting was held at which time sixty eight came forward and signed the covenant At the Presbyterian Sunday School eighty signed, and at the Taylor street seventy seven, making 225 in all that signed yesterday There was more interest by far manifested than at any previous meeting Mr Hammond changed his base in the rink to day speaking from the center instead of the one at the end of the hall He says that heretofore he was firing at long range and some of his shot fell short but that hereafter he was going to occupy a stand where he could throw hot shot among any of them

At quarter to seven an open air meeting was held at the corner of Ash and First consisting of singing, praying and short exhortations by Rev Pierce, Bagley and Chatin There was a perfect jam at the Rink during the evening, every available seat was filled extra seats brought in, still there were hundreds that had to stand There was also a second meeting going on at the Baptist Church where Christians met to engage in prayer, The meeting was opened by singing We'll Stand the Storm Prayer by the Rev Mr. Bagley and reading of the 5th chapter 1st John Mr Hammond took his text from the eleventh chapter of Hebrews By faith Noah being warned of God of things not seen as yet prepared an ark to the salvation of his soul, and proceeded to enlarge upon the subject for about one hour and a half At the close a duet solo was sung with great effect by Mr Bagley and Miss Cason Morning prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church at 8 30, and evening service at the rink at 7 30

THE CAMORRA OF ITALY

Mrs Linda Mazini—who is the daughter of Mr James White (late senior Member for Brighton)—writing to the Examiner gives an account of the Camorra (summarized from a letter of Professor Villari one of the three worst scourges of Southern Italy—the Camorra, the Mafia and Brigandage. The Camorra lives by preying on their fellow-men—they threaten and intimidate, steal, exact from others the commission of crimes or compel them to assume the responsibility of them, they protect criminals from justice, and exercise their business, if such it can be called, on everything and everywhere The most perfect organization of the Camorra is to be found in the prisons, but they do not always work in the lower grades of society, but there are Camorristæ in white gloves and dress coats whose names are often heard in public Despite the attempt to stamp it out the Camorra is still a thriving institution—no longer, it is true, able to rear its head openly, as under the Bourbons, by whom it was favored and encouraged as a means of preserving order, but still in secret spreading its ramifications through every class of society. For instance, it is found impossible, even in Naples, to carry out municipal ordinances and by-laws, unless the Camorra contrives to get some profit out of them This usurpation, once established, soon begins to spread, taking various forms as it gradually penetrates into various orders of society. The vast pampered population have no resource but crime, and there they are at the service of the Camorra Little wonder is it, therefore, that among many cities, Naples is that in which there is not only the greatest misery, but, what is worse, the most brutal degradation Of the dwellings of the poor in Naples, first in horror rank the so-called fondaco. In each of these foul places, composed of a quantity of horrible habitations deprived of air and light, and often very damp, built round a small courtyard reeking with filth, live herded together, hundreds of men, women, and children so degraded by wretchedness that they are more like beasts than human beings Often in these hovels there is nothing but a fetid pile of straw on which the whole family sleep There are ninety four of these alleys, and, with few exceptions, there are no signs of work—only half naked, unemployed specters lounging and wandering about Then there are the rope makers—miserably paid—who live in underground vaults It is in visiting these scenes that one understands that the Camorra, instead of being an abnormal, is a perfectly normal and natural state of things If all the Camorriste could be thrown into prison one day, a new Camorra would start up the next, for no one ever created it—it is begotten of the state of society itself In conclusion, Professor Villari points out the great need of industrial education, and laws to urge on and compel these pauper masses to work for their bread

IMPRISONMENT PREFERRED TO BANISHMENT —So rarely does the political exile display common sense and fail to avail himself of an opportunity for martyrdom, that the example of Lepine, "Adjutant General of Manitoba" during the insurrection of 1870 deserves especial notice and commendation He was sentenced to death for participating in the "judicial" murder of an Orangeman who opposed the rebellion, but Earl Dufferin, for political reasons, commuted his sentence to imprisonment for two years At the recent session the Dominion Parliament granted an amnesty to its Northwestern outlaws conditioned on their exile, Lepine's term of banishment being set at five years And lo! he prefers staying in jail till his sentence of two years has expired, when he will go free, justice having been satisfied His line of reasoning is rather more practical than romantic A good part of his sentence has been served so that by staying in prison he gains three years and a-half. In jail he gets his meals regularly, can communicate freely with his friends, has not to work—advantages that would vanish with his banishment Altogether he prefers to stay where he is than to make an exile and a martyr of himself So notable a departure from the ordinary course of things, especially as when a French Canadian rebels, escapes the gallows and goes into exile he is pretty sure to be made a member of Parliament and Minister of the Crown as soon as he gets home merits mention If exiles generally, whether of Erin or France, had as much common sense the public wouldn't be bothered and bored by them as badly as it now is—N Y World

A NOVEL CEREMONY —The opening of a bridge at Arles France has been the occasion of an extraordinary popular diversion known as the baptism of the bulls, of which the Pall Mall Gazette gives the following report Near the town is an immense plain called the Camargue, where multitudes of cattle usually graze in peace During great public festivals, however, a large amphitheater is formed of carts and hurdles, which serve to define the half circle. A straight line is then drawn with a plow between the extremities of the curve, and this open space is toward the Camargue A number of bulls are then driven into the arena so formed They instantly endeavor to leave it and return to their pasture, but they are stopped by a body of horsemen armed with tridents A few, however, manage to break through the line and then comes the real excitement of the day The plow-mark is guarded by men on foot, who meet the fugitive bulls, seize them by the horns, throw them down, and apply the branding-iron to each from among those bearing the names of the cattle owners of the Camargue As, however branding the bull is considered a great honor, the handsomest spectatress of the sports is led forward to give the unfortunate animal his fiery "baptism." Such is the scene with which the opening of the bridge of Arles was celebrated the other day The men liked it, the women liked it and it is to be hoped that the bulls liked it too

A FIGHT IN A CHURCH —A colored church in New Orleans was the scene of an unusual and disgraceful occurrence on a Sunday afternoon lately The former preacher of the church, whose name was Moody, appears to have tendered his resignation, and the council elected one Bowie as his successor From some cause Moody relented his act in resigning and languished once more for the care of the flock Bowie however, was installed, and the majority of the congregation determined to maintain him Sunday as Bowie was in the act of preaching a number of Moody's supporters entered the church, and going up to the pulpit threw him down the steps The utmost excitement ensued, and each male person present went down into his pocket for a white handled razor Several of the skirmishers were knocked on the head with clubs but as the negro cranium is proof against ordinary blunt weapons, the effect was not serious The Police came in and arrested the ringleaders, and their names show that the women were not backward in the fight

On the eve of starting from Berlin for the campaign of 1870 Moltke was interviewed by the correspondents and replied as follows "You ask me how matters are getting along Not badly, my wheat has suffered from rain, but my crop of potatoes was never finer" The correspondents forthwith took up their watch on the Rhine.

In but few respects do we observe any changes in the condition of financial affairs in our local market. There is no special complaint of dullness or scarcity and all offers of first class security are met in the city banks or by other lending institutions on moderately easy but not restricted terms

Trade is quiet to day and but few transactions of any volume are reported Large speculative sales of merchandise are not near so frequent a feature in earlier days before our means of transportation were so rapid an extensive Interior merchants come to the market now four or five times where they only came once before and their purchases are, in a greater number of transactions but not less in the aggregate Prices are now steady for nearly all classes of imported goods and with decreased stocks to replenish trade is with a fair satisfactory result. The same spirit of careful dealing and conservatism which began to be observed after the panic and dull times in 1873 has been followed out among business men generally the past season and its effects are seen in the good permanent basis upon which about all our houses stand to day A San Francisco exchange says the money market in that city appears to be relaxing and is working easier despite the excessive drain to New York in the interest of the gold gamblers The eastern and foreign balances of our merchants and bankers are in a healthful condition in consequence of the large shipments of treasure during the past five months

The large dividends of local incorporations paid last week in connection with those to be disbursed to morrow add new life to the channels of circulation and increase the amount of idle capital available for reinvestment The increased outturn of bullion from new sources contributes to the same result. Grain bills will soon be available and thus add another element of ease

In our domestic produce market we have no changes to note since Friday's review much of the business of this character which is transacted on Saturday is in retail and receipts are mostly from adjacent farms and of minor commodities The market is well supplied with sensonable fruits but their quality is not first class owing to the protracted rains Prices are low The grain market is quiet and but few sales being made Eggs poultry and dairy products are in fair supply at our last quotations Provisions are also abundant and the demand for shipment being limited prices are weak and parties hitherto purchasing largely are indisposed to venture extensively in the present state of the San Francisco market. The wool trade exhibits some activity and receipts are quite large both from this valley and Eastern Oregon The range of prices is from 20@22c for average to 27a30c for extra fine and choice combing.
